One-Third	The number of participating countries shall be between four (4) and five (5)	The number of participating countries shall range from four (4) to seven (7).
No cash incentive shall be given if the number of teams in any event is less than four (4)

In any sports event, if a sportsperson secures multiple medals in either individual or team categories, they shall be entitled to receive the cash incentive only for the highest-ranking medal won in that event. However, in the case of the Olympic Games, Paralympic Games, Asian Games, and Para-Asian Games, a sportsperson who wins multiple medals in either individual or team categories shall be eligible to receive the cash incentive for each medal won, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed under this scheme.

Incentive to Indian Coaches:

The amount of the cash incentive payable to the nominated coach/set of coaches will be as under:

- i. In case of individual events, the coach/set of coaches associated with the medal winning sportsperson(s) shall receive 50% of the cash incentive payable to the respective sportsperson(s).
- ii. In case of team events, the coach/set of coaches associated with the medal-winning team shall receive the same percentage of the cash incentive as specified under (i) for the corresponding medal.
- iii. The set of coaches may comprise two or more coaches. In such cases, the total cash incentive amount shall be ascertained as per provision under Nomination of Multiple Coaches.

The cash incentive payable to the coach/set of coaches shall be determined based on the recommendations made by the medal-winning sportsperson(s) and the details provided in the (online) application. The distribution of cash incentives to coaches associated with medal winners in individual events shall be allocated among the following categories of coaches, in the specified proportions:

- i. Grass root-Level Coach: Coach/Set of coaches who initially identified and groomed the talent shall receive 30% of the total cash incentive payable to coaches.
- ii. Developmental-Level Coach: Coach/Set of coaches who further nurtured and developed the medal winning sportsperson shall receive 30% of the total cash incentive payable to coaches.
- iii. Elite-Level Coach: Coach/Set of coaches who provided advanced training to the medal-winning sportsperson at the elite level shall receive 40% of the total cash incentive payable to coaches.

(OR)

Coaches who have actually trained the medal winning sportsperson/team in a recognized National Level competition (gold/Silver/Bronze) for a cumulative period of 240 days preceding the competition on regular basis and for the achievement the Coach could be identified as the exclusive or mainstay for training and performance record.

(OR)

15% of the Cash Incentive given to the Medal Winners will be awarded to the Coaches, subject to the condition that Sportsperson should have undergone coaching under the said coach at least for a minimum period of 3 Years. An undertaking from the sportsperson with endorsement from the Sports Association concerned must be obtained. Coaches can be engaged from anywhere in India.

Cash incentive will not be sanctioned to the Coaches of the medal winners in School Games and University Games.

Nomination of Multiple Coaches: In cases where more than one coach is nominated in a single category, the allocated cash incentive for that category shall be distributed equally among all nominated coaches.

Nomination of Akharas or Academies:

- A sportsperson may nominate Akhara(s) or Academy (ies) in lieu of individual coaches for the receipt of cash incentives under this Scheme. The nominated Akhara(s) or Academy(ies) shall be eligible to receive the proportionate share of the incentive as determined under the respective category.
- The name of the nominated Coach/Set of Coaches, Academy or Akhara must be registered in the authorized database as prescribed by the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports Government of India. Once the name of the grassroots-level coach and developmental-Level coach is registered by the sportsperson for a specific sports discipline, it shall be considered as final and cannot be modified.
- In the case of an event where multiple individual sports persons trained by the same coach have secured medals, the coach shall be eligible to receive the cash incentive corresponding solely to the highest-ranking medal achieved among them. However, in the case of the Olympics, Paralympics, Asian Games, or Para-Asian Games, if a sportsperson/team trained by a coach wins multiple medals, whether in individual or team events, the coach shall be entitled to receive the cash incentive for each medal won.

In the event of any doubt/dispute regarding the names of coaches nominated for each incentive, the Government shall have the final authority to decide the matter, following due deliberations and consideration of all the relevant factors.

Applications for the Cash Incentive under this Scheme:

Applications under this scheme shall be submitted exclusively by the sportsperson(s) (through the designated portal or) at the Directorate of Sports & Youth Affairs, Puducherry within six months from the conclusion of the respective event. However, where sufficient details are readily available to ascertain the eligibility and facilitate the sanction and disbursement of the cash incentive under this scheme, the requirement for submitting an application may be waived.

The Directorate of Sports & Youth Affairs shall not entertain any requests for relaxation in cases where the sportsperson fails to submit the cash incentive application within the stipulated time frame.

The achievements of the sportsperson and the coaches may be verified through authorized agencies or official databases.

General Provisions:

- a. The list of Sports events eligible for cash incentives under this Scheme shall be as notified by the Department of Sports, Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India, New Delhi from time to time.
- b. The cash incentive provided under this scheme do not constitute a legal right. All decisions of the Government regarding matters covered under this Scheme, including its interpretation, shall be final and binding. No appeal, challenge, or claim shall be permitted against such decisions.
- c. In the case of any ambiguity, dispute, or conflict regarding the interpretation of any provision of this scheme, the decision of the Government shall be final and binding.
- d. In exceptional and deserving cases, with the approval of the Government, a suitable cash incentive may be granted for events that are not explicitly covered under this scheme.
- e. Government reserves the right to suspend, freeze, or discontinue this scheme at its sole discretion, without the obligation to provide any justification or prior notice.

Relaxation:

- Any exceptions, relaxations, or amendments to the provisions of this scheme may be made with the approval of the Government.
